

Thursday, 6th May.

10 o'clock news.

The "Times" was published this morning.

Londoners walked to work for the third time this morning. Much assistance has been rendered by owners of Private Cars.

An American visitor's opinion of the attitude of the Londoners during the Strike was that they had accepted the position with the Englishman's usual sense of adaptability.

Soviet Execution. Three Soviet Officials were executed yesterday by order of the Government. The charges against them were that they had been the cause of inflating the currency.

Norway has forbidden the export of Coal and Coke. Sailings to Great Britain have been postponed owing to the Coal Strike.

Peace Spirit. The Bishop of Oxford will preside at a meeting representing all the Churches in Oxford on Friday night for the future peace and unity of the Country.

Buses to Liverpool Street. Independent owners are running buses to Liverpool Street this morning at a uniform fare of 3d.

Train Services. Two Milk Trains arrived at Paddington this morning bringing normal supplies. Fish train from Milford Haven arrived last night.

Southern Railway reports that 334 trains were run yesterday.

It is hoped an improved service will be run to and from Bournemouth, Southampton, Portsmouth, Dover, Folkestone, Margate, Maidstone, Hastings, Eastbourne, Brighton, Tunbridge, Tunbridge Wells and Sevenoaks.

The Southern Railway announce that a fairly frequent service is being maintained.

More trains are run to Scotland.

The L.M.S. Railway announce that Milk Trains arrived this morning at Glasgow and were taken charge of.

Details of other services will be exhibited at Local Stations.

Taxi Strike.

Despite the decision to cease running, there were several taxis running on the streets this morning.