House of Commons today. Prince of Wales and Duke of York were present when debate on motion for authorising continuation of Emergency Regulations were resumed. Warm discussion ensued over Labour Members' objections to regulations dealing with protection of property. Mr. Dacey saw in regulations attempts to enable coal owners to fill pits with blacklegs and warned the Government this would lead to trouble. Sir Douglas Hogg, Attorney General replying said suggestion that people should not be allowed to continue in business because a body of Trade Unionists had forbidden it was the best justification of this regulation. There were loud Ministerial Cheers and angry Labour cries. Mr. Mardy Jones said hotly that Miners Federation took up Sir Douglas Hogg's challenge and declared every miner would do their utmost to prevent mineowners working blackleg labour. Regulations were a "Scrap of Paper" as far as the miners were concerned. Mr. Jack Jones warmly condemned regulations. Labour amendments to regulations were rejected by 317 votes to 95.
