

The Peace Problem.

The Archbishops of Canterbury & York, and the Leaders of the Anglican churches wish to state that they are in closest communication with each other, and are actually considering ways by which Christian opinion may be brought to bear upon the present crisis, in an endeavour to find a solution.

Employees of the "Newcastle Electric Supply Company" came out on strike last night when their shift ended, but there was no interruption of the supply of power.

Disturbances in Glasgow.

In the East end of Glasgow ~~during yesterday's~~ disturbances occurred, resulting in several arrests. The trouble arose through a party of miners marching towards a tram depot where they imagined that a number of students and volunteers had been housed. yesterday

Situation at Edinburgh.

Some further disturbances occurred at Edinburgh last evening arising out of the throwing of stones at Corporation buses. The police dispersed the demonstrators, and 9 arrests were made. per harangue There was a disturbance at Middlesboro' last night where an attempt was made to hold up a passenger train, but the crowd dispersed after being ~~designed~~ by members of the Town Council. The demonstration was made outside the branch offices of the local newspaper. Order however, was soon restored.

Scenes at Middlesboro'

Naval & Army Pensioners and the strike.

The Executive of the Naval & Army Pensioners, recommend their members to render every assistance in their power during the period of national emergency.

Advice to owners of Motor Cars.

With reference to Motor Cars which may be damaged by irresponsible parties in this emergency, being covered only under ordinary comprehensive motor policies, we are informed that it would be advisable for car owners to carefully inspect their policies as they will probably find that such risks are not including without an additional premium being previously paid.

The Colonial Wool Merchants Association announce that they have decided to postpone indefinitely the public sale of wool and sheep skins until such times as sales can be held by public auction.

a We are instructed by the Chief Civil Commissioner to make the following announcement: Two men have been arrested at Marylebone today for selling leaflet declaring that the Civil Police have come out on strike. There was no truth whatever in the allegation and the two men will appear tomorrow morning at Marylebone Police Court.

The L.G.O. Company again started two routes at 8 o'clock this morning.

- No.1. Circular route Aldwych, Ealing, Hammersmith & Chiswick.
- No.5. " " Charing Cross, Piccadilly, Oxford Circus, Edgware Road, Cricklewood & Golders Green.

Over 1000 trained men are available at the volunteer training centre at Chiswick, and another special circular route will be established today. Other services will be introduced as quickly as possible as men can be passed through the training process. All routes will through the training process. All routes will be run from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. unless otherwise stated.

One of the brightest announcements we have to make is the steady maintenance of the milk supply. Last night 2900 churns of milk were received at Paddington.

Owing to the pressure of the telephone service at the Railway Information bureau, intending passengers are asked to refrain from telephoning up, enquiring for news respecting the train services, but to call at ~~a~~ local stations.

The Batavia Line, ~~The Batavia~~ Line, states a Rotterdam message, announce sailings for London today and Saturday evening.

The Home Office report that in the London and the Home Counties, no serious trouble occurred yesterday: The L G O Company's service of buses were working smoothly. There was interference with the transport of Petrol at Fulham and Chiswick. Members of the Cavalry, and volunteers were enrolled as extra ~~police~~ mounted police.

In spite of attempts at Newport, the power station men were reported as remaining at work.

The White Star Line "CEDRIC" was coaling successfully, and one steamer was unloading wheat by volunteers.

A rumour that a large body of strikers have done damage at Crewe is entirely without foundation.