

Charles Barker & Sons.
Limited.

GENERAL
Advertising Office.
31. Budge Row, Cannon Street,
London, E.C.4.

FRIDAY, MAY 7th, 1926.

11 a.m.

WIRELESS NEWS BULLETIN.

MRS. STANLEY BALDWIN'S TRANSPORT SERVICE.

Owners who will volunteer to lend their motor cars for the purpose of conveying business women and girls living in the suburbs to and from their business should write or telephone to No. 10, Downing Street, Telephones: Victoria 1234, Extension 15 and Central 3700 (Special line), giving full particulars, ie. Name and address, city hours during which the cars are at the disposal of the Transport Organisation, number of passengers to be carried and with or without driver.

Mrs. Baldwin wishes to emphasize the great importance of maintaining this service to women workers, whose actual salary might otherwise be jeopardised.

THE NAVY AND ARMY PENSIONERS AND THE STRIKE.

The Executive of the National Association of Navy and Army Pensioners recommend their members to render every assistance in their power during the period of national emergency.

ADVICE TO OWNERS OF MOTOR CARS.

With reference to motor cars which might be damaged by irresponsible parties in this emergency, owners being covered under ordinary comprehensive motor policies are informed that it would be advisable for them to be careful to inspect their policies, as they will probably find that such risks are not included without an additional premium being previously paid.

"We are instructed by the Chief Civil Commissioner to make the following announcement :-

Two men have been arrested in Marylebone to-day for selling leaflets declaring that the Liverpool Police have come out on strike. There is no truth whatever in the allegation. The two men will appear tomorrow morning at the Marylebone Police Court.

The Home Office report that in London and the home counties no serious trouble occurred yesterday.

*Charles Barker & Sons,
Limited.*

GENERAL
Advertising Office.
*31. Budge Row, Cannon Street,
London, E.C.4.*

-2-

THE LONDON GENERAL OMNIBUS CO.
-----

The L.G.O.C. started up two routes at 8 o'clock this morning.

No. 1 Circular route - Aldwych, Ealing, Hammersmith and Chiswick.

No. 5 Circular route - Victoria, Charing Cross, Piccadilly, Oxford Circus, Edgware Road, Cricklewood, and Golders' Green.

Over 1,000 trained men are now available at Chiswick Voluntary Training Centre and another special circular route will be established to-day. Other services will be introduced as quickly as the men can be passed through the training process.

All routes will work from 8 a.m. until 8 p.m. unless otherwise stated.

TRAIN SERVICE ENQUIRIES.
-----

Owing to the pressure of telephone business intending Railway passengers are asked to refrain from ringing up the Railway Information Bureau or London Termini, as time will be saved if passengers will go and make enquiries at their local stations.

All train services are steadily improving.

THE KING AND THE STRIKE.
-----

The King and Queen are spending most of their time at Buckingham Palace. His Majesty is keeping in close touch with the situation, and gets most of his information from State Ministers.

Various Members of the Buckingham Palace Staff, the Prince of Wales' Staff and the Duke of Yorks' Staff are giving voluntary service to mitigate the trials of those inconvenienced by the present situation.

-----