APPEAL BY THE GOVERNMENT FOR FURTHER
CONSTABULARY RESERVES FOR LONDON.

There are at present two forces attached to the police in London.

The Metropolitan Special Constabulary Reserves and
The Metropolitan Special Emergency Constabulary.

Owing however to the tactics employed by ill-disposed persons taking advantage of the present crisis, it has been necessary to expand and organise a further force of loyal citizens willing to give their whole time towards helping the Metropolitan Police. This new force will be designated the Civil Constabulary, and will be paid as a whole time force.

The following are eligible to join:-

- (A) Officers and other ranks of the Territorial Army and the Officers' Training Corps,
- (B) Ex Military men who can be vouched for at Territorial Army Head Quarters. Age limit 50 yrs.
Men engaged on vital public service should remain in their present employment.

Pay at the following rates:-

Commander	10/-
Inspector	7/6
Sergeant	6/-
Constable	5/-

An allowance of 5/- per wk given to each man to cover clothing, washing and incidentals. Army rations free and also accommodation. Until such time as food can be issued 2/6 per day will be given to each man.

Employers are earnestly requested to encourage and give every sympathy to employees to enroll themselves.

Established to-day, Monday, May 10th at 7 a.m. in all Drill Halls in City of London and County of London Association.

Recruits should bring Health and unemployment books and cards.
